

Mother Mary on the importance of her new rosaries

This page contains excerpts from Mother Mary's messages in which she talks about the significance – personal and planetary – of her new rosaries. The excerpts are listed in the order they were given by Mother Mary.

2004: The year of the shaking Earth - December 28, 2003

However, I desire to bring you another tool that can be the very stopgap measure that will help the Earth rise without cracking. That tool is the Miracle Rosary that I am releasing today through this messenger. I encourage all those, who have ears to hear, to use this rosary, if possible on a daily basis.

If only a few people would use this tool diligently and consistently, I can assure you that the potential for massive earthquakes in the year 2004 can be greatly mitigated. In fact, if a critical mass of people were to embrace this rosary, the Earth's crust could be liquefied, so that hardly any earthquakes would reach the surface and cause it to crack, thereby causing devastation and loss of life.

My miracle rosary does not have the purpose of reaching those who are willing to believe in miracles but who continue to believe that they can only wait for miracles to occur. My miracle rosary is meant to reach those who are willing to acknowledge the path of individual Christhood and willing to acknowledge that when they walk that path, they are not simply waiting for miracles. They are bringing about miracles because they are the miracle of the incarnation of the universal Christ consciousness, the Word of God. The Living Word of God is the higher law that can set aside not only the material law but the very density of the consciousness of humankind.

I come to you with tidings of great joy because there truly is rejoicing in Heaven in this moment.

That rejoicing is caused by the fact that so many have studied my last dictation, in which I talked about the potential for earthquakes in the year 2004. And the rejoicing is especially caused by the fact that so many have taken up the use of my Miracle Rosary and have indeed vowed to give this rosary daily.

As I told you in my last release, the power of this Miracle Rosary is indeed immense. Yet for that power to be released, someone in embodiment must be willing to be the open door through which the light and the power of the rosary, and thereby the light and the power of the Divine Mother herself, can be released in this matter universe. And so, the power of the rosary depends on the number of people who give the rosary and the dedication and the fervor in the hearts of the people who give the rosary.

I can tell you that those who have given this rosary now for less than a month have already averted earthquakes that could have come to pass during the month of January and that could indeed have caused much devastation and loss of life. You have seen aftershocks in the area of Iran in which the last devastating earthquake happened. Yet these aftershocks did not cause any loss of life, and the reason was in large part due to the power of the Miracle Rosary which mitigated these earthquakes.

I am not hereby saying that the number of people who have so far started using this rosary is sufficient to turn back all of the earthquakes that could potentially happen during the coming year. Yet I am greatly encouraged by what has already been accomplished, and there is a new optimism in Heaven that if this rosary could spread like rings in the water, and be taken up by many more people, it would indeed be possible to avert almost all of the earthquakes that I prophesied for this coming year.

The East-West Rosary incorporates affirmations that invoke the light and the wisdoms of the Dhyani Buddhas. The affirmations call for the consuming of the poisons from all aspects of your being. This can lead to major spiritual growth for you as an individual, and it can also lead to major progress on a planetary scale.

Therefore we now have a major problem, represented by the accumulation of toxic energies in the Middle East. These energies are perversions of the primordial qualities of God represented by the poisons that I spoke about earlier. It is imperative, for the restoration of balance on this planet, that these toxins be cleared away. This is indeed one reason for the release of the East-West Rosary. I can assure you that this rosary is a major dispensation for this planet. In fact, I can tell you that this East-West Rosary is one of most powerful spiritual rituals ever to be released on this planet. Its potential power is virtually unlimited, and if it is performed by people with pure hearts, it can have a miraculous impact on the future of this planet, including the future of the Middle East.

I therefore encourage you to give this rosary while visualizing a figure-eight flow, where the energy flows from Southeast Asia, through India, through the Middle East, into Europe, into North America, to South America, through Africa back to the Middle East, into the northern parts of Asia, through Japan and Australia, then back through Southeast Asia. If you will visualize this flow and visualize how the spiritual energy consumes all darkness over the Middle East, you will render an immense service to this planet.

I trust you can see that by invoking the Dhyani Buddhas along with the Divine Mothers East and West, you consume the poisons in your own being, and therefore you enhance your own personal progress. Yet you will also consume the poisons that have been stored in the collective consciousness of humankind. Thereby, you will free the Earth Mother herself from the heavy weight of these poisons, and you will greatly minimize the risk that the Earth Mother will become so burdened that she can no longer maintain her balance and is forced to release the tension through earthquakes, volcanoes, winds, fires, floods or ice.

I truly hope that you can see the immense potential of this East-West Rosary on a personal and planetary level. I will say again that it is indeed one of most powerful spiritual rituals ever released on this planet. It is powerful precisely because it combines the light of the East with the light of the West, the light of the Divine Father and the light of the Divine Mother. It combines the light of the Dhyani Buddhas, who represent the father aspect of God, with the light of the Divine Mother.

This then has the greatest potential for restoring the proper balance and the proper flow of energy between the father aspect of the Eastern hemisphere and the mother aspect of the Western hemisphere. This is indeed a ritual that encompasses the very essence of God.

Turning back the tides of war - February 28, 2004

So my beloved, my purpose for this long discourse is to show you that there is indeed a great need at this time for those who are willing to be the shock troops of the Ascended Host. I need those who will make an effort to consume the energy vortexes and the momentums of war on this planet. I am in need of those who will be like the firemen who go into the burning city to pour water upon the fires of war and quench the flames and smoke, until people can see clearly and are not overpowered by the energies of war. I am come to give those who are willing to take on this task a powerful tool for consuming the energies of war. That tool is my Miracle Peace Rosary that is a special gift from my heart.

So you see my beloved, you can make a tremendous difference. Even one person giving these rosaries will make a positive difference, and even though one person cannot turn the tide, the effort of a number of people can gradually build a critical mass that eventually consumes so much negative energy that a major war will not come to pass.

You see my beloved, it is like throwing buckets of water upon a fire. One bucket seems to make no difference but many buckets will make a difference. Yet if just one bucket is missing, the fire might not be quenched. Your personal contribution could be the one that brings the power of the rosaries to the critical level and therefore makes all the difference in the world. So please do not feel that you cannot make a difference, and do not allow yourself to be paralyzed by the forces of this world.

Gratitude is the key to the abundant life - March 28, 2004

I come also to express my gratitude, and the gratitude of Heaven itself, for those of you who have so diligently given my new rosaries. These rosaries are truly making a difference, and I can assure you that had it not been for these rosaries given, you would have seen very devastating earthquakes in this past month. These earthquakes have been averted, and instead you have seen many smaller earthquakes that did not cause loss of life. Yet I must warn you that the danger of earthquakes and other natural disasters is far from over. Therefore, I strongly encourage you to keep up the work of giving the rosaries.

My beloved hearts, it is precisely to help you reestablish the circle of life that I today release one of the most powerful spiritual tools you have ever seen on this planet, namely my rosary of the Miracle Gratitude. This rosary is the antidote to every human lack and every aspect of human suffering.

I am not hereby saying that my other rosaries are no longer needed. They are truly needed for their specific purpose. Yet I must tell you that there is hardly any problem on Earth that could not be solved and removed through gratitude. And the reason is simple, namely that gratitude brings God (back) into your life. And with God all things are possible. Therefore, when God is in your life, all problems can be solved and suddenly the abundant life is manifest.

My beloved hearts, I now turn back to the topic of terrorism. The terrorists who have been attacking the Western nations have truly descended into the Cain consciousness, and they feel jealous of their Western brothers and sisters who seem to have more abundance than themselves. They feel this is unjust, so they are now out to destroy Western civilization by the faulty logic of the Cain consciousness, which makes them feel that if they slay their brother, then God must love them all the more. Oh my beloved, what an illusion this is because God already loves them with an infinite and unconditional love. It is simply their own state of consciousness which prevents them from accepting God's love.

I am sure you can see that it is impossible to reason with terrorists. It is impossible to reason with those who are trapped in the Cain consciousness. Yet what you can do is to consume that Cain consciousness, and the key to doing this is to send waves of infinite gratitude into the collective consciousness of humankind. This then is precisely what my Miracle Gratitude Rosary will accomplish—if it is given by a critical mass of people.

So my beloved, as my final word let me say that although my rosaries are given to turn around world conditions, each rosary carries with it a personal benefit for those who give it. I am sure you can see that my Miracle Gratitude Rosary can be of immense benefit for you personally by restoring the flow of life between your spiritual self and your soul, thereby bringing God's abundance into your personal life. I trust that I need say no more to make you see that this rosary truly is a gift that should make you feel the miracle gratitude that is the key to opening the door to Heaven.

Total forgiveness leads to total freedom - April 29, 2004

My beloved hearts, I come to you with great gratitude for the rosaries you have given so faithfully over this past month. My last gift to you was the rosary of Miracle Gratitude. You might remember that the purpose of this rosary is to consume the world movement of terrorism. In this past month you have indeed seen several major terrorist plots be averted by the authorities in various countries.

I must tell you that there are presently not enough people giving these rosaries to totally consume the very cause of terrorism. Yet even a relatively limited number of people can have a major impact on terrorism. As you begin to consume the negative energies, the vortexes of negative energies, that feed the terrorists, you will make it easier for the authorities to expose and stop the terrorists from carrying out their plots. This is because it is partly the intensity of the energies that blinds people and therefore blinds the authorities, or even the people who live near the terrorists, to what is really happening. So you see my beloved, even a small number of people can diminish the energy and thereby expose that which is hidden behind a veil of negative energy.

So my beloved, I come to you today to release a gift from my heart, a gift that can help those of you who are my awakened ones break this downward spiral of revenge and nonforgiveness, found not only in the Middle East but in many places throughout this planet. That gift is my rosary of Miracle Forgiveness.

So my beloved, I give to you the tool of my Miracle Forgiveness Rosary as a way, an extremely efficient and powerful way, for you to consume the layers of negative energy and the imperfect sense of identity that surround your soul and keep you believing in the image that you are a mortal human being trapped in a prison from which there is no escape. There is indeed an escape, and it is to simply leave the imperfections behind and come up higher in consciousness.

Remember your first love - May 2, 2004

My beloved hearts, I am your Mother Mary, and I come to you this day in the flame of unconditional love. I come to bear witness to a momentous occasion in which the words of the unconditional love of God were spoken through the mouth of a being in physical embodiment. My beloved hearts, this is indeed a unique occasion that brings forth the vibration of the driving force behind this universe, translated into human words. These words then will form the basis for a new rosary that is truly unique, in that it is dedicated to the flame, the Presence, the Being of unconditional love. This Rosary of Unconditional Love will then allow you to tune in to, to reconnect to and to realign yourself with the basic force behind all creation, the unconditional love that drives even God to become more.

This then is a most powerful ritual for helping you overcome all limitations and all imperfections in this world and rise above the limited, imperfect sense of identity as a mortal human being, as a sinner, who is forever condemned to be separated from your God. My beloved hearts, this rosary that I release through this discourse is indeed a most powerful tool for those who are serious about winning their victory and their ascension in the light and who have realized that in order to win that victory they must follow the call of my beloved son Jesus, when he said, "Whosoever will lose his life for my sake shall find it."

Accept the kingdom of God on your planet - May 29, 2004

My beloved hearts, in my continuing efforts to help you rise to a higher level of consciousness, and thereby set the Earth Mother free from the burdens upon her, I have come to give you one more rosary. It is indeed a rosary that is designed for the specific purpose of helping you accept the kingdom of God manifest on Earth. I assure you that those who will make a commitment to giving this rosary at least once a week, but as many times as you like, will swiftly begin to feel a transformation of consciousness.

You will feel the dissolution of subconscious blocks that you did not even know you had. You will feel a softening of your consciousness, until you gradually begin to grasp and accept an entirely new relationship to God and an entirely new view of the world. You will begin to see the vision that Jesus saw when he walked the Earth 2,000 years ago, a vision he has been holding ever since. You will begin to see the vision that I was given by the angel when I was asked to give birth to the Christ child, a vision that I also continue to hold for this planet.

My beloved hearts, the purpose of the rosary of miracle acceptance is to transfer the vision held in the minds of the Ascended Host to the conscious minds of people in embodiment. When you accept that vision, the light of your I AM Presence will shine through the filmstrip in your mind and project the perfect images of the kingdom of God upon the outer conditions in your life. When a critical mass of people accept that vision, the perfect images of the kingdom of God will be projected upon planet Earth herself, and I can assure you that the Earth Mother will obediently outpicture that vision.

Oh yes my beloved, the Earth Mother has a great love for God the Father and for his perfect vision and will. Because of her nature, she allows God's children to project an imperfect image upon her, but I can assure you that she does not like this image and she constantly suffers pain because of this image. Therefore, the Earth Mother herself is eager to throw off the shackles of the imperfect images that have been projected upon her for so many centuries and millennia. If you give her just a little bit of support, you will see how she will jump to her feet in great joy and instantly go to work on making the perfect vision of the Christ mind into a sculpture carved in matter.

Choose to be - June 1, 2004

My beloved hearts, I trust you can see and feel that this magnificent discourse by the Presence of Oneness is truly the capstone of the pyramid of the delivery of the Living Word in this book. I trust you will see that the magnificent rosary of Miracle Oneness is indeed the capstone of the pyramid formed by the other seven rosaries. It has truly been my purpose with this book to raise you to an awareness of the very fact that everything is created out of the One God, and therefore everything is one with the One God. I hope to raise you to the awareness that you too are one with your God—when you choose to be one with that God.

My beloved hearts, I trust you can see that all of the problems and imperfections that you currently see in your personal life and on planet Earth as a whole spring from this point of division, the point of separation from the One God. I therefore trust you can see that the ultimate solution to the problems on planet Earth, the ultimate key to bringing God's kingdom to Earth, is that a critical mass of people make it a priority in their lives to reclaim their oneness with their God. I trust you can see that the teachings I have given in this book are like the layers of a pyramid that gradually build upon each other until you reach the apex of the pyramid. What then is the apex of a pyramid? My beloved hearts, it is a single point, a point of oneness. That point of oneness is the single-eyed vision that Jesus spoke about when he said, "When thine eye is single, thy whole body also is full of light" (Luke 11:34). It is the nexus point of the figure-eight flow of energy between the spiritual realm and the material realm. And that is why a person who achieves Christ consciousness becomes the open door between Heaven and Earth, the open door that no one can shut.

The seven rosaries that I have given before this new rosary of oneness form the layers of a pyramid. By giving these rosaries, you can climb the pyramid of life. When you reach the top, the rosary of Miracle Oneness will empower you to put the capstone on the pyramid of your life. When you do reach that summit of being, you will be who you truly are, namely an individualization of the One God, a part of the whole that, as every part of a hologram, has the whole within itself—and accepts it.

Heaven is grateful this day - July 24, 2004

I come to tell you that each and every one of my rosaries truly invokes the full power of the Violet Flame. Yet they invoke a special flame, a special characteristic of the Violet Flame, which is the Omega aspect, the Mother aspect of the Violet Flame. And because everything in the material universe is made from the substance of the Divine Mother, the rosaries have a unique power to consume and transform imperfect energy.

I must tell you, from the bottom of my heart, that there are currently no spiritual rituals on this planet that are more powerful than my rosaries and the new rosary to Archangel Michael. Archangel Michael's Rosary truly is the Alpha flame, the Alpha thrust, that you can use, not only to protect yourself, but to consume all forces of darkness on this Earth, to bind those forces. And then my rosaries can move in and replace the darkness with the love and the perfection of the Divine Mother.

An acceleration in Christhood - September 29, 2004

My beloved hearts, I trust that those of you who are aware, those who have read my other discourses and have given my other rosaries, can see that this new dispensation, this new rosary, truly is an acceleration, even beyond the powerful rosaries given to you earlier. I trust you can see that this is a unique opportunity for you personally and for the planet as a whole. I can tell you that this latest rosary is a gift that is given to those who have merited this gift by faithfully giving my other rosaries.

I must also tell you that this new rosary is so powerful that in order to give it, I request that you have established a firm foundation by giving my other rosaries and Archangel Michael's Rosary for a time. I ask that you do not give the new rosary until you feel you have established enough spiritual protection and have internalized my other rosaries to the point where your Christ self tells you that you are ready for the new rosary.

Let us bring Light to Earth in this dark season! - Novemb. 21, 2004

My beloved hearts, I am come to you this day with glad tidings but also with a request for your help. I am indeed your Mother Mary, and I come to you in this hour to congratulate those of you who have studied my previous messages, and especially those of you who have taken up the use of my rosaries.

I must tell you that one year ago, when I gave my first message through this messenger, I would not have believed it possible that so few people could have such a great impact on planet Earth. Think about the millions of people around the world who have great devotion to my heart and who pray to me and give the Catholic rosary daily. I want you to realize that although they do help the progression of humankind, their efforts simply cannot stem the tide of the rising darkness that is being flushed out by the rising light. Therefore, even though I have great love for the millions of people who pray to me by using the old rosaries of the Catholic dispensation, I must tell you honestly that their efforts simply cannot bring planet Earth safely through the transition ahead.

I want to give special thanks to those of you who have demonstrated your devotion by requesting a copy of the Rosary of Infinite Light. Requiring you to ask for this rosary was an experiment to see how many would come forward. And indeed, enough people came forward to bring about the dispensation of this vigil and the public release of a special version of the Rosary of Infinite Light. Your efforts caused us to conduct this new experiment of the year-end vigil to see whether enough people will elect to make an effort to bring Light to Earth at the darkest time of the year. I can assure you that the potential for this vigil is great in terms of turning back both world karma and your own individual karma. As always, when you give one of my rosaries as a world service, my angels will multiply what you give and use some of it for your own benefit. The Lord will always reward the servants who multiply their talents.

The new rosary will focus on making calls for what the Ascended Host consider the greatest threats in the year 2004 and 2005, namely natural disasters and the outbreak of war. I am not saying these are the only threats, but these are indeed the threats that are most imminent and also have the potential for creating long-term consequences. Indeed, the only other threat that has this kind of potential is the outbreak of new diseases and epidemics, so we will also devote some attention to this.

We consider the year 2004 as a major turning point in the forward movement of humankind and in the materialization of the coming golden age. And we consider those who have given my rosaries to have given the single most important – although certainly not the only – contribution to this forward movement.

This has been a victorious year! - December 29, 2004

Even though this is a somber occasion, I want to encourage those of you who have used my rosaries. I want you to know that you have done much to avert what could have been a much greater disaster. Just take a look at the list of the most deadly earthquakes in the history of the world, and see how many of them killed far more people, even though they were not nearly as strong.

2005, the year of willpower - January 1, 2005

Beloved hearts, I come at the start of the New Year to congratulate those of you who have so faithfully and lovingly given the Rosary of Infinite Light over these past 33 days. I have already told you that the rosaries you have given have averted an even greater earthquake and thereby saved many lives. I know it is difficult to watch such a great loss of life and feel any sense of victory in the midst of this disaster. Yet I must tell you that the mitigation of this earthquake through your prayers is indeed a victory.

Another great victory accomplished through your rosaries is the outcome of the election process in Ukraine. It was truly your rosaries given that prevented the outbreak of large-scale violence after the failed election in November. The light invoked by your rosaries cleared the way for a peaceful resolution and the new election that took place after Christmas. Your prayers cleared the way for the election of the people's choice for the presidency.

This is a great victory for the people of Ukraine, and it has the potential to bring true freedom and true democracy to a nation that was once part of the totalitarian regime of the Soviet Union. This is a very important victory because it has the potential to build a bridgehead of light that can spread to other former Soviet republics and to Mother Russia herself. This is truly of great importance because the choices made by the Russian people over the coming years will have an enormous influence on the world as a whole.

If you have ever studied the psychological effects of any natural or manmade disasters, you will see that many people's lives are literally ruined because they cannot overcome the emotional wounds and leave the disaster behind them. You have to understand that the souls who were taken out of embodiment were taken for karmic reasons. These souls are therefore in their rightful places, and once they are cut free by your calls to Shiva, they will be taken by the angels to places in the spiritual realm, where they will receive assistance, guidance and healing.

The souls who were left behind were left behind because it was not their karma to perish and because their souls wanted to remain on Earth to grow further. Yet it often happens that the shock and trauma of the event, and the sorrow of losing loved ones, material possessions or their former lives, causes people to become so paralyzed that they lose all connection to the true desires of their souls. And because the survivors are in physical embodiment, we of the Ascended Host cannot assist them against their free will. Therefore, there is an immense need for those of you who have spiritual awareness to make the calls and invoke our assistance on behalf of those of your brothers and sisters who are so traumatized by this disaster that they cannot invoke our assistance on their own. Many of them are simply too shocked, but some are too angry and do not want the assistance from a God whom they conceive to be angry and whom they believe has punished them by letting them survive this disaster.

To help you make these calls for your brothers and sisters, not only for this disaster but for future disasters, we have decided to release to you a special rosary for the healing of the victims of all types of disasters. This is indeed a most powerful rosary that invokes the presence of Archangel Michael and Shiva as the Alpha, or masculine, polarity and invokes the Presence of beloved Kuan Yin and myself as the Omega polarity. Through this action, you can indeed lift the cloud of fear and sorrow that envelopes this entire event. You can therefore help heal your brothers and sisters and even heal the Earth Mother herself of all scars. You can help your brothers and sisters move on to rebuild their lives as swiftly as possible.

I therefore encourage you, now that the vigil of the Rosary of Infinite Light has come to an end, to take up this new rosary and if possible give it daily for a time. I shall let you know when the time is over and sufficient light has been invoked to start a positive spiral of healing and rebuilding.
